Liaison Amsterdam

2 - 10 April 2011

Liaison launches its inaugural exhibition on the 2nd of April. Loosely translating Liaison means a connection, close cooperation or adventure. Four galleries will present their artists who are working in classical and contemporary styles. The exhibition offers an exciting mix of figurative art, surrealism, realism and related movements.

Bizarre and sophisticated

Liaison provides something for everybody. Anyone with a fetish for masterly paintings, bizarre sculptures and staged photography is in for a treat. Admirers of fine landscapes, still lifes and glass sculptures are catered for as well. The exhibition concept facilitates cooperation between a number of galleries from different countries. Lacking the labyrinth of art fairs stands, the industrial Loods 6 hall is the ideal setting, with its expansive space which provides ample room to imbibe the energy of the art.

Galleries join forces

Encouraged by the success of the previous two Dreamscape exhibitions, Salome Art Venture and Cabinodd have continued their fruitful collaboration. The Liaison concept is an initiative of Marcel Salome who wants to encourage further cooperation between professional galleries. This first Liaison in Amsterdam brings into the fold, the Dutch Galerie Bonnard and Belgian ArtHebda Consulting. Future Liaisons, Antwerp and Miami are also in the planning.

Pioneers and young blood

Liaison Amsterdam represents pioneers, godfathers, undiscovered talent and young blood. Exhibited artists include: Michael Parkes, Wendy Farrow, Slavko Kronic, Menunana, Frank C. Hauser, Caroline Westerhout, Joran van der Haar, Kirsten Wilmink, Kwon Kyung Yup, Mr. Sauli, Saturno Buttò, Johan Potma, Mateo Dineen, Cédric Laquieze, Buddy Nestor, Ton Dubbeldam, Kay Yoshiya, Walter Brems, Elzo Dibbets, Jo Joosten, Philip de Rooij, Wim van Rompuy, Dolf Geudens, Christien Dutoit, Stani - Jan Borowski, Michael Behrens, Gerd Kruft, Przemyslaw Lasak, Hans-Peter Mader, Wlad Safronow, Eirini Tsantekidou, Ekaterina Moré, Uladzimir Bludnik en Jacek Hazuka.
